

A network for Early Career Historians, in partnership with the IHR

29 and 30 March 2023 (online: Zoom)

Registration: <https://www.history.ac.uk/events/life-after-phd>

---

29 March 2023

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 9:30-9:40   | Welcome   |
| 9:40-10:40  | Translating your skills for a career outside of academia– Lucie Whitfield and Joanne Workman (Senior Careers Advisors, University of Nottingham)  |
| 10:40-10:50 | Break   |
| 10:50-11:50 | Early Career Insights: research fellowships, collaborative partnerships, lecturing and museums– Dr Tarangini Sriraman (Wellcome Early Career Research Fellow), Dr Carol Beardmore (Lecturer in History, Open University) and Dr Marenka Thompson-Odlum (Research Associate at the Pitt Rivers Museum) |
| 11:50-12:20 | History Lab Plus: wellbeing and resilience  |
| 12:20-12:30 | Closing remarks   |
-

30 March 2023

- |             |   |
|-------------|---|
| 9:30-10:00  | Working With/In Other Sectors: Skills Mapping and Opportunities– Professor Catherine Clarke (Director of the Centre for the History of People, Place and Community, IHR) |
| 10:00-10:45 | Impact and Knowledge Exchange– Dr Colette Davies and Dr Anna Walas (KE and Impact Officers, Faculty of Arts, University of Nottingham)                                   |
| 10:45-10:55 | Break  |
| 10:55-11:15 | The IHR and the Early Career Historian– Professor Claire Langhamer (Director of the IHR)   |

11:15-11:50	History Lab Plus: different early career pathways
11:50-12:15	Getting Published: Insights from Palgrave – Lucy Kidwell (Editor for History, Palgrave Publishing)
12:15-12:30	Closing remarks

---

With support from the Institute of Historical Research and the Department of History, Ulster University

